

Indicates the side of the road to which vehicles may travel upon completion of the bridge. The signal is red and the road is closed in the opposite direction. The signal is green and the road is open in the indicated direction. Yellow: Warning.

The blue sign indicates the toll road that the driver must use to reach the toll. It is used at tolls. The blue sign indicates the toll road that the driver must use to reach the toll. It is used at tolls. The blue sign indicates the toll road that the driver must use to reach the toll. It is used at tolls.

Because of the time it takes to change lanes at tolls, tolls are often used to control traffic flow. Toll roads are often used to control traffic flow.

Key Answer

The toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls. The toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls. The toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls. The toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls.

Though the toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls, it is not a road that is used to collect tolls. It is not a road that is used to collect tolls. It is not a road that is used to collect tolls.

Problema

100-1000 Answer Guide

Answer to Question 1000

1. Toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls.
2. Toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls.
3. Toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls.
4. Toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls.
5. Toll road is a road that is used to collect tolls.